MEDICINAL.

A Nervous Woman

Will often feel compelled to stop the clock whose ticking seems unbearable to her. In such a nervous condition the woman needs a building up of the entire system. It is useless to attempt the cure of the nerves while the cause of the nervousness remains uncured. A very common cause of nervousness in women is a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organism.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases and the nervousness which they cause. It changes irregularity to regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is a perfect tonic and nerve, tranquilizing the nerves, promoting the appetite and inducing refreshing sleep.

"When I first wrote you I had been to three different doctors and two of them I would never get better without going to the hospital for an operation," writes Mrs. Selma Erickson, of 475 Rice Street, Paul, Minn. "Was not able to do anything. It would get up and walk to the kitchen and back I would have to lie in bed for a day or sometimes two days. Now I have used six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and six of the Golden Medical Discovery, and the result is just wonderful. I was not nervous I had to have some one by my side all the time even in day time, and I could hardly eat anything. I took treatment from a doctor twice a week, and every time I would go there I felt sick, but since I quit all the doctors and began taking your medicines I gained right along. I weighed 125 pounds, when I began taking your medicines (in August) and now I am up to my usual weight 165. I am as well and feel as good as ever."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MURDERED HIS WIFE.

The greatest excitement prevails in Hamilton, Ohio, over the confession of Alfred Knapp that he murdered his wife Vanna on December 22 last and then disposed of her body by boxing it up in a big wooden box and throwing it into the Miami river, near Hamilton. Knapp was arrested at Indianapolis Tuesday night in company with a woman, formerly named Annie May Gamble, to whom he had been married on February 3. He was taken back to Hamilton and lodged in jail, and after repeated denials of the charge against him broke down and confessed. Knapp said that he had choked his wife to death while she lay in bed and that he does not know why he did it. As soon as the confession became public a mob formed in the vicinity of the police station and with difficulty dispersed. Subsequently he was removed to the county jail and placed under a special guard. A mob surrounded the jail and threatened violence, and there is still talk of lynching, but the officers believe that they will be able to prevent it. Knapp has been married four times. His first wife died mysteriously in Indianapolis eleven years ago. His second wife was found dead in the canal in Cincinnati eight years ago with suspicious bruises about her head and body. The third wife is the one he confessed having killed. Knapp is an Indianapolis man. He is forty-one years of age. Knapp has a police record and has served many years in the penitentiary. He was sent to the Michigan City penitentiary in October, 1899, for ten years for assaulting Alice Hall, a young girl. He was released in June, 1902. He has also served terms in Joliet, Ill.; Jeffersonville, and in Columbus, Ohio, for various crimes.

STUDENT KILLED BY TEACHER.

Reuben B. Pitts, principal of the Inman High School, located about fifteen miles from Spartanburg, S. C., is in jail charged with killing Ed. Foster, one of his pupils, about seventeen years old. Pitts is a young man, a graduate of Furman University, and a son of a well-known Baptist minister of South Carolina. He took charge of the Inman School six months ago, and has had difficulty in controlling some of the larger mountaineers who have been attending the school. The trouble culminated yesterday when Foster and three other large boys were ordered to remain after school was dismissed. The students' side of the case has not yet been told, as Pitts brought the first information concerning the shooting to Spartanburg. He says that five young men had been disobedient and insubordinate, particularly Foster, and after dismissing all except the four ring-leaders he announced to them that he would whip Foster. Leaving three boys in a class room he took Foster into his private office, locked the door, produced a "hickory" and attempted to apply it, but Foster refused to be whipped and jerked the rod from the grasp of the teacher. At the same moment the three young men left in the class room burst open the door and rushed at Principal Pitts. To defend himself from an expected assault Pitts says he drew a pistol from his pocket and leveled it at the young men. Foster was within a few feet of him and he struck the pistol with his hand, knocking it down. Pitts had his finger on the trigger, and the blow discharged the weapon, the bullet going clear through the student's stomach, inflicting a mortal wound. The teacher summoned a physician and then surrendered to Constable Frank A. Metcalf, and they drove across the country to Spartanburg. Pitts' reason for carrying a pistol is that being physically unable to cope with the larger boys, and they being rebellious, he needed a weapon for his protection.

LADY GORDON SHOCKS LONDON.

London is amazed and shocked by the matrimonial revelations of Lady Granville Gordon, in a case which she brought before the courts in order to obtain the custody of her child. The revelations are such that even before the case is settled a notification has appeared in the Official Gazette that her presentation at the royal court is canceled. This means that she may not appear at any drawing-room or other social function given by the Queen. It is regarded in the fashionable world as social ostracism. Lady Granville Gordon was formerly married to her present husband's cousin, Eric Gordon, who divorced her and obtained an order for the custody of the only child, a little daughter. She immediately married Lord Granville Gordon, but refused to surrender the child to her former husband; and when an attempt was made to enforce the order of the court she reopened the case by putting an extraordinary story before the judge. She swore that there was an arrangement that she should have the child despite the previous decision of the court, because the child was really Lord Granville's, whose improper relations with her before and after her marriage with Eric Gordon were assented to by the latter.

Uncle Sam says it's all right

Uncle Sam, in the person of ten of his government officials, is always in charge of every department of our distillery. During the entire process of distillation, after the whiskey is stored in barrels in our warehouses, during the seven years it remains there, from the very grain we buy to the whiskey you get, Uncle Sam is constantly on the watch. We dare not take a gallon of our own whiskey from our own warehouse unless he says it's all right. And when he does say so, that whiskey goes direct to you, with all the original strength, richness and flavor of a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE OF PURITY AND AGE, and saving the dealers' enormous profits. That's why HAYNER WHISKY is the best for medicinal purposes. That's why it is preferred for other uses. That's why we have over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. That's why YOU should try it. Your money back if you're not satisfied.
